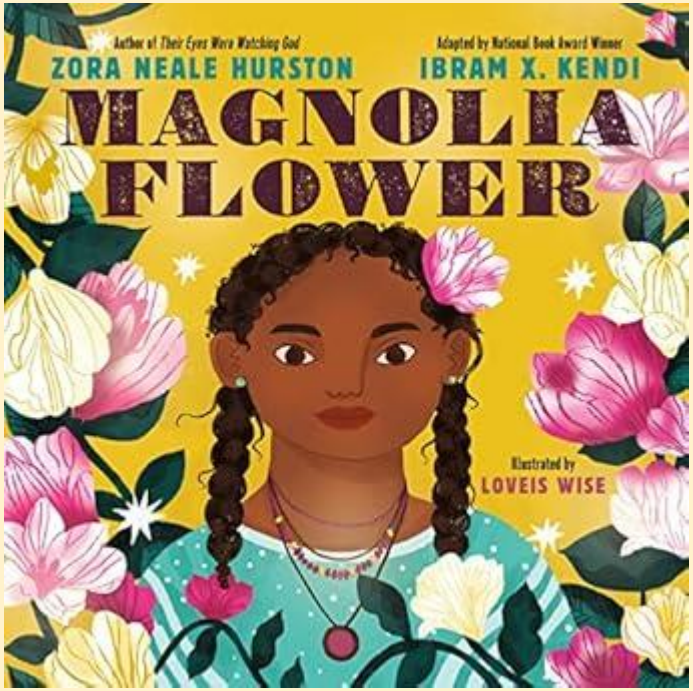
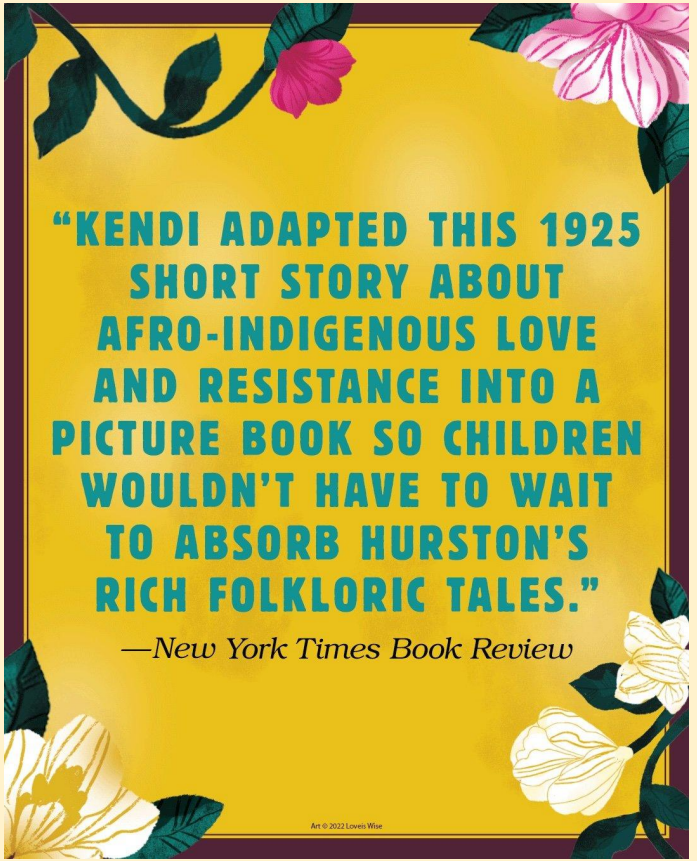
Building Stories Through Movement

Presented by Stacey Allen, Nia's Daughters Movement Collective

Review from Introduction





Reflection

What stood out in someone else’s piece?

What surprised you in your group’s work?

What themes emerged through movement?

Collaborations Across Discipline

- Lesson Plan Prompts
- Prompt 1: Time Travel Song
  - Background Information: Original Song, collaborated with music teacher
- Prompt 2: “Pupusas” by Reyes Ramirez
  - Current Houston Poet Laureate
  - From his book “El Rey of Gold Teeth”
- Prompt 3: “Space for Us: Afrofuturism and the Poetic Imagination” by Aris Kian Brown
  - Houston Poet Laureate Emeritus,
  - previously on view at Houston Freedman’s Town Conservancy

Where to Find the Lesson Plans

Go to www.niasdaughters.com

Click on More

Click on Educational Equity

Find “Lesson Plan Samples and Resources”

Find “Telling Stories Through Movement”

Bonus: Find: “D is for Dance: Dancing Through the Diaspora” Lesson Plan and Coloring Sheet

Resources and Contact Information

Stacey Allen/ Nia's Daughters Movement Collective

Email:
Staceyallencde@gmail.com

Instagram:
@theblackartsymom and @niasdaughters

Website:
www.niasdaughters.com

Nia's Daughters Movement Collective